

years, because we were forced to save ourselves and deal with the issue we did everything. That's where you are now. That's where you are now. You've obtained victory. Now you have to fill in the details and that you'll do, but you won't do it if you back down. History is also full of lost opportunities, Senator Johnson, because somebody, after they did the impossible didn't have the temerity to finish up. Let me give you the best example of all that you should be familiar with, the battle of L-e-y, because I can't pronounce it right, L-e-y-t-e Gulf, Leyte Gulf. The Japanese were defeated. One last ditch effort, MacArthur had just landed back in the Phillipines.

SPEAKER NICHOL: One minute.

SENATOR DE CAMP: It was all over and then they took their three fleets, they divided them up. Each one of them did a daring impossible thing and finally the entire Japanese armada was right off the Phillipines, MacArthur was done, MacArthur was dead, we had no defenses there and what happened? Because we had a couple of little skipjack boats running around harassing them, the Japanese commander, when he had victory right in his pocket, turned his entire fleet and left and the rest is history and the war was over for all practical purposes after that. You have victory at your hands and now the very ones that have fought for it more than anybody else, the Johnsons, the Vickers, they are saying, let's turn and run tail, and I am not going to say what their motives or reasons are. They know, they know their motive, they know their reasons and I believe they know they are wrong. Hold on to the amendment you have in 662. If you want to repeal something, if that is your urging this morning, repeal the reorganization portion.

SPEAKER NICHOL: May I introduce guests of Senator Scofield, please, under the north balcony. She has with her Robert and Ruth Ann Connell of Chadron, Nebraska. I understand Senator Scofield is a niece of Ruth Ann Connell. Would you please stand and be recognized. Thank you. Senator Beutler, please.

SENATOR BEUTLER: The question.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. The question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. You are voting to
